OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 20 July 1967

25X1 1. [] Talked to Sue May, in the office of STAT Senator George Murphy (R., Calif.), concerning a constituent letter from [] Miss May agreed that the subject matter of the letter was not within the jurisdiction of the Agency and said she would write an innocuous answer.

25X1 2. [] Talked to Frank Meyer, in the office of Representative Gerald Ford (R., Mich.), to determine possible dates for a freshman breakfast. Ford's calendar indicates that either 3 or 10 August would be good dates. I shall check these with Representative Cowger (R., Ky.)
to be sure they are not taken by the 90th Club. 25X1

25X1 4. [] Spoke to William Allen, Administrative 25X1 Assistant to Senator Albert Gore (D., Tenn.), concerning an appointment for [] to debrief Gore on his recent talks with the Soviets in Geneva. Allen said he would check with the Senator to determine his availability and call me.

25X1 5. [] Talked with Bob Brandt, House Foreign Affairs Committee staff, who said that he and Boyd Crawford had talked with Chairman Selden about Edna Kelly's request on [] Mr. Selden had stated to them that they should simply forget the matter unless Edna Kelly raised it again in which case they should bring it to his attention. 25X1
